MAINSTAGE PRODUCTIONS

Culver City Public Theatre ("The Public") will present Noel Coward's much loved, delightful madcap comedy Hay Fever. Mayhem ensues as the charming and eccentric Bliss family (headed by an overwhelming actress who can't leave her theatrics on stage) each invite a guest to their country home for a summer weekend. The visitors struggle to make sense of the bizarre antics and a hilarious game of romantic musical chairs ensues. Performances are July 10-11, July 17-18 and July 24-25 at 2pm in Dr. Paul Carlson Memorial Park, located at the corner of Motor Avenue and Braddock Drive. Directed by Alexander Wells. Admission is FREE.

Culver City Public Theatre ("The Public") will present Henrik Ibsen's An Enemy Of The People, adapted by American theatrical icon Arthur Miller. A small town has just begun to win fame and wealth through its medicinal spring waters, but the resident physician discovers a life-threatening secret. This explosive drama tells a story of betrayal, greed, corruption and the courageous fight for truth. An Enemy of the People reminds us that integrity and freedom of speech remain essential. Performances are July 31-August 1st and August 7-8 at 2pm in Dr. Paul Carlson Memorial Park, located at the corner of Motor Avenue and Braddock Drive. Directed by Alexa Hunter. Admission is FREE.

Culver City Public Theatre ("The Public") will present The Cherry Orchard, Anton Chekhov's timeless, wistful classic. A humorous, passionate portrait of a disappearing way of life. A wonderfully eccentric, once well-to-do family faces the auction of their beloved estate. A businessman offers them a way out, but will the family be able to overcome its elegant quirks to act in time? Re-discover the grace and humor of this masterpiece of the modern theatre. Performances are August 14-15, August 21-22 and August 28-29 at 2pm in Dr. Paul Carlson Memorial Park, located at the corner of Motor Avenue and Braddock Drive. Directed by Gregg W. Brevoort.

Admission is FREE.
